Gromyko Warns Flights Carry War Danger

Protest Is Going to UN Council Says U. S. Planes Armed With Bombs

MOSCOW (AP) — Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today accused the United States of sending planes armed with atomic and hydrogen bombs across the Polar Region toward the Soviet Union. He announced a protest against these "provocative flights" was being sent to the U. N. Security Council.

Demand Cessation

Gromyko told a news conference such flights were "unheard of in times of peace" and the Kremlin demands their immediate cessation. He said they carry the danger of worldwide atomic war.

If the United States is trying to intimidate the Soviet Union with these flights, he said, it is wasting its time.

"The Soviet Union has sufficiently strong nerves and its armed forces can if necessary deliver a crushing retaliatory blow to any aggressor," he added.

Indignant Over Timing

The foreign minister said he would like to believe the U. S. Air Force took action without the sanction of the U. S. government or President Eisenhower personally. But there has been no statement to the contrary, he said.

Gromyko expressed the "profound indignation" of the Soviet government that such flights were being launched at a time when the Big Four powers were finally entering diplomatic talks aimed at convening a summit conference.

He said he had not brought up the Kremlin protest at meetings of the three Western ambassadors summoned to the foreign ministry in the past 24 hours to discuss a summit conference.

French Ambassador Maurice Dejean said earlier the talks with Gromyko were "preliminary in nature."

Rejects West Position

But Gromyko told his news conference the Soviet Union could not accept the position of the Western powers for diplomatic talks as presented in a three-power note on Wednesday.

This indicated the Kremlin is standing pat on its position that talks on a diplomatic level be limited to setting the time and place and composition of a foreign ministers meeting preliminary to a summit meeting. The Western powers want to discuss East-West problems at the diplomatic level.

Gromyko said the Soviet government felt talks on a diplomatic level could drag on for months or even years and the Soviet government is interested in a summit meeting as early as possible.

"That is why we are meeting to narrow our differences," the foreign minister said.

Could Precipitate War

Gromyko declared one slip by a U. S. technician manning the radar screens of the American early warning system could precipitate a global atomic war.

The U. S. Air Force command, Gromyko said, has confirmed that American bombers carrying atomic and hydrogen bombs are repeatedly sent across the North Pole toward the Soviet Union.

Competent Writers Give Facts

AP Ready as Space Age Brings New Happenings

NEW YORK (AP)—The dawning of the space age found The Associated Press geared to cover in depth the resulting interest in science, education and defense, Frank J. Starzel, AP general manager said today.

"The staff of writers covering science and other specialized fields has been reinforced, and the broad interest in this type of news is reflected generally through the organization," he said in his annual report.

He said "our planning assumes a broader perspective, and we must be ready to meet new challenges quickly and positively."

Starzel's report was sent to members of the AP, worldwide news-gathering cooperative, in advance of the annual meeting to be held Monday, in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. The luncheon speaker will be Robert McLean, president of the Philadelphia Bulletin and former president of The Associated Press.

Must Know Subject

"It is no longer enough for the newsmen to be just a competent reporter or editor," Starzel said. "Demands of the news are so multiple that staffers must back-ground themselves educationally as never before in history."

"At the same time, the boundaries of news have become unlimited. The subject matter is vastly more diversified and the areas where it breaks have spread enormously and shifted greatly in emphasis," he said.

He said that, to meet these demands, The Associated Press in the coming year must keep versatile, mobile and knowledgeable staffers at home and abroad.

Interest Shifts

"News interest is constantly shifting," Starzel said. "The bordering between national and international news is disappearing. Set events and occurrences cannot be counted on to have all-consuming interest. Instead, trends and implications of seemingly minor events often assume major importance."

This, he said, places great premium on perceptiveness and diligent reporting, expert knowledge of the subject, and ability to write clearly and with sufficient background and explanatory matter so that the average person can understand.

"Our planning is not limited to technological advances and economic trends," he said.

Reporting Increases

"The man in the street is still

Heart Fund Now $18,703, Keyser Confident of Goal

Ulster County residents have contributed $18,703 to the 1958 Heart Fund campaign, it was reported by Chairman William S. Keyser this week at a Heart Chapter meeting at Heart Chapter offices.

Delegates Report

Reports from the delegates attending the Heart Assembly held in Syracuse March 20 and 21, were heard. Drs. Curtis P. Bight and Irving J. Josephson were enthusiastic about the scientific sessions which they attended. The subject of these sessions was "Arrhythmias" or the irregularities of the heart's action. Mrs. Vincent G. Connelly, Heart Chapter chairman, in reporting on the sessions attended by lay leaders, said, "These sessions centered about the educational program sponsored by the Heart Association—the rehabilitation of the Cardiac and the guidance of children with cardiac limitation."

"Other items on the agenda receiving attention of chapter members," Mrs. Connelly said, "were plans for this year's program which will include continued support of important research; service to the profession through dissemination of the latest knowledge gained through research; education of the public through distribution of the newest printed material available; films and discussion programs for organized groups." The chapter will continue the heart diagnostic service and the

Blame Whitesboro Man For Taking $13,151

SYRACUSE (AP) — A Whitesboro man was named in a 13 count federal indictment today charging he embezzled $13,151 from a federal credit union from 1955 to 1957.

A federal grand jury identified Yelle John Nyemeyer as treasurer of the H. Waterbury and Sons federal credit union.

The indictment also charged Nyemeyer with three counts of making false entries in the union ledgers.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Kenneth Ray said the accounts were insured. In other indictments reported: Harold R. Jones of Auburn was named in a three-count indictment charging theft of mails and endorsing and passing a forged U. S. Treasury check.

Judge Stephen W. Brennan of U. S. District Court fined Aaron Oretskin, a Binghamton market operator, $4,500 for federal income tax evasion.

Oretskin, who pleaded guilty to the evasion charge, was permitted 60 days to make payment. The government had charged that Oretskin evaded payment of $5,500.

Following adjournment of chapter members, Dr. Frederic W. Holcomb Sr., chairman of the Heart Medical Advisory Board, presided at a meeting of physician members to review medical aspects of the heart program.

Ex-County Treasurer Fined $5,000 in Court

LAKE PLEASANT (AP) — Lyman Avery, former Hamilton County treasurer, was fined a total of $5,000 Thursday on two counts of malfeasance in office.

County Judge James C. Curry also ordered concurrent prison sentences of a year to 18 months but then suspended them.

Avery had been convicted by a county court jury of failing to remove a deputy treasurer from office after Avery became aware of the deputy's incompetence. The indictment said Avery also tried to help the deputy return the money.

Curry fined Avery $2,500 on each of the two misconduct counts.

Avery was unable to pay the fines immediately and was held in the county jail.

The county treasurer's office remained closed for the third day, pending the naming of a successor by Gov. Harriman. County Attorney Charles S. Tracy ordered the office closed after Avery was convicted Monday night.

Meanwhile, county highway department employees went without their pay. The number involved was not disclosed.

The county clerk told a reporter the records were in the locked treasurer's office and he could not provide any information.

The deputy, Frederick H. Karuth, pleaded guilty March 24 to an indictment charging falsification of county accounts. He is awaiting sentencing.

Ave Vetoed Town Annexation Bid

ALBANY (P)—Gov. Harriman today vetoed a bill that would have authorized Niagara Falls to annex part of the Town of Wheatfield.

The governor cited objections from the state comptroller and the State Education Department.

He said the comptroller objected that, if the area were annexed, the central school district in Wheatfield would become a "school district in a city" within the meaning of the law.

The school district's debt limit thus would drop from 10 to five per cent of average full valuation of real property. A tax limit also would be imposed.

The Education Department said the bill failed to provide "procedural safeguards." It did not elaborate.

Assemblyman Ernest Curto, Niagara Falls Republican, was the sponsor.

Sentences Are Given Thursday In County Court

Ludwig J. Distler, 22, of Route 1, Kingston, was given a year jail sentence, which was suspended, on his plea of guilty to resisting an officer when he appeared Thursday in County Court before County Judge Louis G. Bruhn for sentence. Distler had been charged with assault, second degree, for an alleged affair on Broadway involving Officer Charles McCullough who had directed Distler to stop his car. The incident happened July 19, 1957.

The first count of the indictment was dismissed and bail was exonerated. Distler was placed on probation. Joseph Avis appeared for defendant.

Preston Coddington Jr., and Shirley Coddington, charged with a violation of the Social Welfare Law, entered a plea of guilty and sentence will be imposed Monday. Joseph Avis appeared for defendants.

An indictment charging Frank Denter Jr., with assault, third degree, on Margaret Denter June 28, 1957, was dismissed. The complainant, his wife, asked dismissal since they had been reunited. Hubert Richter appeared for Denter.

Bernard Szymanski, New York City, entered a plea of guilty to petit larceny, waived the usual 48-hour period before sentence and was given 70 days in the County Jail, the time he has already served. Szymanski was brought back from Elmira where he was being confined under another charge.

Szymanski and another defendant, Reginald Aho, attempted to commit robbery at the Shangri La, Accord, June 18, 1955. Charles Saccomani, who appeared for Szymanski, said the robbery was prevented when Szymanski had a change of heart and kept the other defendant from committing the serious crime which might have resulted in very serious consequences for the complainant.

A letter from the complainant was filed requesting leniency. In view of the facts as outlined by counsel and the attitude of complainant, Judge Bruhn imposed the 70 day sentence, the time Szymanski has been in jail here and two other counts of the indictment were dismissed.

A jury in the John Cravino case was then selected. Cravino is charged with sale of intoxicants to a minor at Pantonys, New Paltz.

Asked why he did not volunteer the information to police at that time, Loyas H. Dean, 51, a bartender, replied: "They didn't ask me."

Hercules Donates $100,000 to Aid College Program

WILMINGTON, Del. — Approximately $100,000 in unrestricted grants-in-aid is being distributed by Hercules Powder Company to some 24 American colleges and universities.

This is the third consecutive year Hercules has carried out this aid-to-education program, giving the schools complete freedom in the use of these funds.

"One of the principal goals of this program is to improve and expand the understanding between scientific personnel in industry and those on the college and university levels," said Albert E. Forster, president and board chairman of Hercules.

These unrestricted grants-in-aid are in addition to grants of various kinds for specific purposes made by the company to institutions of higher education.

Ten grants went to chemistry departments, eleven to chemical engineering, two to mechanical engineering, one each to schools of mining engineering and business administration, and two for industrial liaison membership.

Suggested uses for the grants, although in no way limitation on their use, include the purchase of special equipment, travel expense for technical meetings for the teaching and research staff, visiting lecturer stipends, grants to staff members for summer studies, and grants to graduate students in emergency situations for the completion of their theses.

Woman Receives Burns Fighting Brush Fire

Mrs. D. Kuhns of the Morgan Hill section of West Hurley received slight burns about the face and neck Thursday afternoon in attempting to control a brush fire near her home.

A brush fire went out of control about 3 p.m. Thursday and after summoning the West Hurley Fire Department she attempted to prevent the blaze from spreading to the house. The fire was extinguished by firemen using a booster line and water.

Chief Henry Gleich has issued a warning requesting residents of the area to use extreme caution when burning brush or leaves.

USO Is Grateful For Funds, Time Given to Program

Nearly 40 million visits by members of the armed forces and their dependents were made to USO clubs, lounges and information centers around the world last year, according to the 1957 annual report of United Service Organizations, Inc., received here by Harold E. Keator Jr., president of the Kingston Area Community Chest, Inc. USO is a participating agency in the local Community Chest through regular examinations.

They can last anywhere from six months to six years.

One source, Republican, estimated there were 15,000 such appointments made last year. The Civil Service Commission said it could not estimate the total offhand.

Three Categories

There are three main categories where politics can be the prime factor in who gets the job.

One is the exempt class, not under civil service. These jobs usually involve policy-making or confidential work. Many are found in the Legislature, where most of the 850 employees are paid only during the three months both houses are in session.

Another is the laborer class — grass-cutters, sweepers, electricians' helpers.

But a large share of patronage also is possible in jobs for which applicants must pass civil service examinations to obtain permanent appointments. For so-called temporary appointments are made, without examinations, when no eligibility lists have been created

CAN WE TAKE IT?

No common sense American wants this country to lose the propaganda war to the Soviet Union. Such a loss might cost us the support and allegiance of many still uncommitted free peoples.

But we cannot expect to win every propaganda skirmish, nor even all the major battles.

We should not dismiss lightly, of course, any defeats we may suffer. Yet neither can we wring our hands because we don't win them all.

George Allen, director of the U.S. Information Agency, spoke to this point the other day when he advised Americans not to get too excited when this country is subjected to extreme pressures and criticism from abroad.

He pictures this situation as an inescapable part of the burdens of world leadership which have been thrust upon us.

We are looking to for answers to everybody's problems. Inevitably the actions and policies we develop do not suit some of the conflicting interests which turn our way.

In some cases, obviously, it is impossible to be regarded as "right by all parties, since two or more strongly opposed positions may be represented.

The French in Algeria are an example. We can only try to find the fairest compromise course indicated.

In other matters, we sometimes are simply wrong.

Criticism is warranted. We just have to take it and seek to correct our mistakes.

On the other hand, many times we may be dead right but still find ourselves subjected to attack. These are the moments when Allen's advice not to get excited would seem most fitting.

Making a good propaganda impression is important, but it is not everything.

If we are right and we know it, we have to show the courage to stand by our course no matter what the hostile barrage, no matter what capital the Communists may make of it.

Great nations wedded to the ideals of freedom and democracy cannot devise policy solely on the grounds of its psychological effects abroad.

Our task is to pursue our goals of peace and liberty with all the honesty and energy and wisdom we can muster. We must hope that this will spell good propaganda. But where it does not, we still cannot be dissuaded from our path if it is right.

AMERICA'S FUTURE

A nationwide "Confidence in a Growing America" campaign to underscore the basic soundness and true strength of the country's economy has been launched by The Advertising Council.

The Council's campaign to maintain public confidence by pointing out the facts of a growing America are based on seven basic reasons. These facts are based on the findings of reliable private and governmental research sources:

The population of the United States has doubled in the last 50 years. The nation's prosperity curve always has followed its population curve.

Though employment in some areas has fallen off, there are 15,000,000 more jobs than in 1939. There will be 22,000,000 more in 1975.

U. S. production doubles every 20 years. The country will require millions more people to make, sell and distribute its products.

Individual savings are at highest level ever—$300 billion—a record amount for available spending.

An annual expenditure of $10 billion each year for research will pay off in more jobs, better living and whole new industries.

America needs $500 billion worth of schools, hospitals, highways, homes and durable equipment. Meeting these needs will create new opportunities for everyone.

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE CHILD COUNTS

In all the unfortunate discussion of the Lana Turner case, including the intervention of the character, Mickey Cohen, sight must not be lost that the central character is the child. Cheryl Crane, the little girl of too many fathers, from what appears in this picture, is a sad girl, who could have had everything but really had nothing and who became suddenly mature because she witnessed a procession of lovers and husbands and learned too much about life before she could possibly understand what she was learning.

This is not a private question. It is the social problem of the United States. Possibly when this child stabbed and killed Mickey Cohen's henchman, her mother's lover, she reminded the nation that our social institutions are based on monogamy and polygamy and polyandry are intolerable in our civilization, no matter how generally practiced. They are intolerable because they disrupt the lives of children; they break up the home which means that children are made insecure. Among the poor, this system produces gangs; among the rich and in the middle class, they lead to hatred for parents, to confusion, even to subversion.

Therefore, it is necessary not to think of the gigolo whom Lana Turner tooted around the world and from whom she accepted caresses and abuse. Nor need we think of Lana Turner who has satisfied whim and fancy without regard to her moral and social responsibilities. What is important is the little girl, the representative of the next generation who stands before the court, a child who killed what looked like a great big man. John, she called him. He was her mother's boy friend. The child was the daughter of the second marriage, and there were two more to follow, and then there was this bodyguard of Mickey Cohen's, who introduces himself over the telephone and becomes, uninvited, the master of the household. And the mother becomes scared of him.

What a scene for bringing up a normal healthy child! So the little girl listens outside the door, while mother and the hood quarrel and he threatens to cut up her face. We do not need to know why. We only need to know that a child has been listening at the door to all the filth that must have been part of such a conversation. We now know from the ghoulish letters, what kind of people these were.

Then it is over. The child seized a knife to prevent the hoodlum from cutting up her mother's face. How many children in such miserable environments would like to do just that? How many of them will wonder when they grow older what has happened to their childhood? Did they have dolls or only hoods?

Society established the family as the fundamental of all social institutions. The family consists normally of one father, one mother and children. Sometimes a parent dies and there is, after a decent interval, another parent. Unless parents are decent, what can they expect of children?

Perhaps Walter Winchell epitomized the force of the era when he wrote, in relation to this case: "It must be a terrible thing to force a man and a woman to live together, who can't enjoy each other." This is a characteristic point of view and represents a period in American social relationships. But what about the children of such a marriage? Are they to be sacrificed to the parent's inability to enjoy each other? Are they to be destroyed? In countries where harems exist, where concubines flourish under one roof, children are reared in an atmosphere of intrigue and hatred and jealousy. I have known the intimacies of such homes and speak not by hearsay. Children can grow like weeds in such an atmosphere. Parents can destroy children without killing them. Parents can distort the minds of children by their misconduct and by vicious examples.

Just as Sputnik I shocked this country, even slightly, out of its complacency and forced us to review our ideas about education, so the case of Cheryl Crane, Lana Turner's daughter, must stir this nation to think seriously of marriage and children and home. In the upbuilding stage, nations are generally puritanical; when looseness of living is permissible, the down-going stage of history is evident.

Big item in Alabama Senator Sparkman's new housing bill is a one-billion-dollar emergency housing bill and the 1.8-billion-dollar supplementary highway construction program.

The two principal items approved so far are the 1.8-billion-dollar emergency housing bill and the 1.8-billion-dollar supplementary highway construction program.

It would apply particularly to the 1.5 billion rivers and harbors authorization bill. This has been passed in different forms by both Senate and House and is now in conference. It is a political bill. It appropriates no money.

But it puts individual congressional records on record as supporting increased government spending in their states, even if President Eisenhower vetoes it, as he has done before.

ARKANSAS SENATOR Fullbright's bill to increase U. S. government loans to the states for anti-recession public works isn't a give-away program, but it would be slow-acting.

Originally proposed as a two-billion-dollar program, it was cut in half and a final Senate vote delayed just before Congress recessed. It must clear the House.

The proposed two-billion-dollar program to build new post offices and renovate old ones is in the same kettle of fish. It would take three to five years to carry out.

Add all these big ideas to the states. But it takes from 18 to 24 months to survey, design, get rights of way and let contracts for new highways. So it may be early 1960 before much of this money could get into circulation.

This delayed reaction means that the expanded housing and highway programs aren't prime recession relief.

Some say a more accurate classification would pin the "pork barrel" label on them. The recession is merely being used as an excuse for additional spending in these fields.

This same criticism can be applied to nearly all other public works programs now being considered by Congress.

It would apply particularly to the 1.5 billion rivers and harbors authorization bill. This has been passed in different forms by both Senate and House and is now in conference. It is a political bill. It appropriates no money.

But it puts individual congressional records on record as supporting increased government spending in their states, even if President Eisenhower vetoes it, as he has done before.

THE ACCELERATED HIGH-WAY construction legislation would provide 200 million dollars more for the interstate system and 400 million dollars more for state roads. This would be in addition to the 2.3 billion dollars already obligated for fiscal 1959.

As soon as the new money becomes available, Bureau of Public Roads will allocate it to the states. But it takes from 18 to 24 months to survey, design, get rights of way and let contracts for new highways. So it may be early 1960 before much of this money could get into circulation.

Twenty and Ten Years Ago

April 18, 1938—Lester W. Herzig, upstate WPA administrator, announced approval of citywide extension of the city's water system with a $102,521 appropriation.

The so-called Asian flu is caused by a particular strain of the influenza A virus. This virus can be considered responsible for the second great pandemic, or epidemic, of the century, the first having occurred in 1918-19.

The exact point of origin of this worldwide epidemic is not known, but apparently the first outbreaks occurred in China in February and March of 1957.

By April of last year influenza had appeared in Hong Kong and had spread to other areas bordering the western Pacific Ocean.

May the virus, carried principally along shipping routes, had spread through Malaya, the Philippines, Guam, Okinawa, India and Indonesia.

DURING JUNE, 1957, more than 20 countries in various parts of the world became affected with Asian influenza for the first time.

It reached the Middle East in epidemic proportions in July. By the end of August the epidemics had declined in most countries of Eastern and Western Asia, but true epidemics began being reported from Europe and North America.

Dutchess Man Is Shot After He Resists Arrest

POUGHKEEPSIE—A father quarreling with his daughter was shot in the right leg today after he resisted arrest and slashed a policeman with a knife.

Patrolman Thomas Flattery said he answered a telephone call for help from the daughter, Marion Higgins, 19, and found John Joseph Higgins, 44, threatening her with a knife.

Flattery said Higgins told him, "Don't come near me or I'll use this knife." The officer said he shot Higgins after Higgins slashed him on the left hand and was making a lunge at him.

Higgins was hospitalized and charged with assault and resisting arrest.

Mild, Dry Weather Possible to Midweek

ALBANY (AP)—The extended forecast for New York State, prepared by the U. S. Weather Bureau, for the period from 7 p. m. today to 7 p. m. Wednesday:

Eastern New York—Mild and generally dry weather with bountiful sunshine continuing through the weekend and possibly through midweek. Temperatures will average some 10 to 12 degrees above normal. Little or no rainfall except for a chance of a shower or two in scattered areas over the weekend.

Western New York—Changeable weather is indicated, with temperatures averaging well above normal. Changeable skies, a few showers and warm over the weekend. Clearing Monday. Increasing cloudiness and quite warm Tuesday, followed by showers. Less than one-half inch of rain is expected.

Temperatures normal—Normal temperatures for Upstate New York now range from early morning lows in the 30s to afternoon highs in the 50s.

Grants by the Rockefeller Foundation will make it possible for Prof. Edward Smith of New York University to engage in research and teach political science at the University of Ankara, Turkey.

No Flooding Is Seen Unless Area Gets Hard Rain

Mountain thaws fed snow water into area streams today and raised their level considerably, but the New York City Department of Water Supply said flooding was not imminent—"a good hard rain."

Unseasonable temperatures in the middle 70s were loosening the winter's heavy snowfall in mountain sectors and converting it into a tremendous rush of water downstream.

Rushing Over Spillway

Water, which started going over the Ashokan reservoir spillway at 7 p. m., April 13, was spilling yesterday morning at the rate of a billion gallons, and swelled today to 1,600,000,000 gallons at 9 a. m.

An area along the lower Esopus near the intersection of Route 28 and the Thruway was flooded, but no other flood conditions were reported. The section flooded was one from which dirt had been removed when a Thruway contractor had taken fill. A section of the creek was diverted from its former course at the time.

78 Not Local Record

A high temperature of 78 degrees was reported yesterday both in the city and in the Ashokan area. It was the warmest day of the year, to date, here, but was no record for the date. The warmest April 17 was in 1941 when the mercury reached 84. The low was 48 at 4 a. m., today and the noon temperature today was 74.

Local police received one report that water was rising in the Esopus Creek, but it had apparently not reached the danger point anywhere in the area of the city.

Muddy, roiled waters were reported in many sections of Ulster County, but the Department of Water Supply's gauging station at Cold Brook, above Boiceville, indicated no reason for flood alarm, a spokesman said.

The spokesman noted that the intake at Cold Brook on Thursday at 9 a. m. was at the rate of 1,900,000,000 gallons, and had increased to a rate of 2-billion gallons at 3:30 p. m. yesterday.

Intake Not Serious

The intake at 9:30 a. m. today was reported at a rate of 2,150,000,000 gallons, but a spokesman said the increase was "not enough to get excited about. Rain will be a problem, depending on the amount of fall, but none is forecast at the moment."

While officials felt there was no imminent flood danger, the heavy flow of water was causing fishermen consternation as it picked up a muddy color from clay banks flowing downstream in the Esopus Creek.

Local Death Record

Clark L. Scott, 79, of 12 Partition Street, Saugerties, died at Benedictine Hospital Thursday following a brief illness. He was formerly of Jersey City, N. J. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Charles Kimble of RD 1, Saugerties; two sons, Edward and Harry Scott of Jersey City; and a granddaughter. Funeral services will be held at the Harley and Lamoureaux Funeral Home, 8 Second Street, Saugerties, Sunday 2 p. m. Burial will be in Blue Mountain Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

Mrs. Mary M. Lynch

Mrs. Mary McCarthy Lynch, 74, of Creek Locks, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Smythe of 7 Wrentham Street, following a long illness. She was born in Rosendale, a daughter of the late Charles and Mary Butler McCarthy, and spent her entire life in the township. Her husband, Martin Lynch, died several years ago. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Charles Smythe and Miss Marie Lynch, and a son, Martin. Funeral will be held from George J. Moyle Funeral Home, Main Street, Rosendale, Tuesday 9:30 a. m., thence to St. Peter's Church, Rosendale, where at 10 a. m. a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of her soul. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery, Rosendale. Friends may call from 2 to 4 and 7 to 10 p. m., beginning Saturday.

Polaris Missile Sent Up

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Navy Polaris missile—which is being developed for launching from submarines—was launched from the Air Force Missile Center today.

An announcement said merely "a Polaris test vehicle was launched." It gave no further details.

The Polaris is designed to have a range about 1,500 miles.

Rear Adm. William F. Raborn, in charge of its development, has been quoted as saying that when it becomes operational in 1960 it can hit any target in the world.

Three new nuclear submarines to carry the Polaris are to be built. The missile itself is designed to carry a nuclear warhead.

Capital Blossoms Out, Too Late For Cherry Fete

WASHINGTON (AP)—The capital's famed cherry blossoms are out at last—three weeks too late for the cherry blossom festival.

Normally, the Japanese cherry trees around the Tidal Basin bloom about the first week in April. But this year they were delayed by the prolonged cold weather. The festival was held a week early, partly to avoid conflict with Easter.

With the temperature soaring into the 70s during the past few days, the white-pink blossoms burst into full bloom.

Says Glusker 'Ambiguous'*Fire Insurance Agents Still Taking Policies*C.S. Schoonmaker, Former Local 'Y' Secretary, Dies

Clarence S. Schoonmaker, 66, of Amsterdam, a former secretary of Kingston YMCA, died at Amsterdam Hospital Thursday.

Prior to his retirement in 1956, he served for 20 years as secretary of Amsterdam YMCA. He had been actively engaged in YMCA work since his youth. His first connection with the Y was on December 1, 1916, at Maplewood Branch, Rochester. A few months later he was transferred to Rochester Central Branch as boy's physical director. In 1920 he was transferred to Gloversville as boy's work secretary. Four years later, he was appointed general secretary.

Transferred Here

Following his Gloversville tenure, he was transferred to Kingston where he remained for seven years as general secretary. In 1936 he went to Amsterdam.

A native of Kingston, he was a son of Martin and Grace Stewart Schoonmaker. He held membership in First Methodist Church, Amsterdam, was a former member of Amsterdam Rotary Club, and belonged to Gloversville Lodge 429, F & A.M.

He was a member of the National Council, YMCA and the New York State Committee of the YMCA. For 12 years he served on the Board of Lay Activities of the Troy Conference of Methodist Churches.

Surviving are his wife, the former Eva Palen; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Hampton of Mt. Holly, N. J.; also, two grandchildren, a nephew and several cousins.

Funeral services will be at the convenience of the family at Johnston-Lindsay Funeral House, 11 Mohawk Place, Amsterdam. Cremation will be Saturday at Gardner Earl-Crematorium, Troy.

the Brussels Fair, Miss McClain went to Brussels and has taken up her duties.

Appreciates Post

In a letter to Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson from Brussels on April 8, Miss McClain expressed her thanks to him and to Congressman Wharton and Senators Ives and Javits for the appointment.

"Now that we have arrived in Brussels and have begun to become more familiar with our work and the prospects for the next six months, my delight and appreciation for having been chosen is indescribable. I can assure you that I will do my utmost to successfully represent my state in my country," Miss McClain wrote.

We are being very well taken care of and are all happy to be here and to represent our country," she writes.

Their statement doesn't deny that some insurance companies have pulled out. What is the element of profit and loss unless it is the incident of fires?"

The mayor, at the village board meeting, appealed to fire companies to increase their enrollment and indicated that, compared to other communities, the Ellenville Fire Department is undermanned considerably.

He said that the fire chief is unable to carry out a village ordinance requiring a yearly fire inspection.

Would Be Sure

"We just want to make sure that everything within our province is done to prevent fires," Mayor Glusker said today.

The mayor told the village board earlier this month that the active membership of the Ellenville fire companies was considerably below that of comparable fire companies in other communities, a condition due in part to discrimination because of race and creed.

At a meeting April 7, Mayor Glusker called for an end to such discrimination in the admission of new members to the village companies.

temporary restraining order would be sought in Supreme Court to prevent the board from further action toward effecting consolidation, and this, DeDea said, would be followed by a court bid for a permanent re-training order.

Wants Money Back

The lawsuit, DeDea indicated Wednesday, would be against members of the board for reimbursement of its treasury for money, which, it would be conceded, was illegally spent "to propagandize consolidation."

The Board of Education voted April 2 in favor of consolidation with 25 outvoting school districts.

The board's decision came after a long discussion of the informal referendum held the same date in which Kingston voted against the proposed consolidation by a margin of 278 votes.

The vote was 2,559 against and 2,281 for consolidation.

The board's vote was 7 to 1 with one member absent due to illness.

County Judge Louis G. Bruhn, a member of the board, was the dissenting vote.

The provision also holds that "Applications covering events not hereinabove specified, shall be filed with the city clerk, and submitted by him to the building and supply committee for approval or rejection. A suitable bond, for not less than $1,000, shall be posted by the leasee, protecting the city against all damages to the building. Such bond shall be filed with the city clerk not less than one week prior to the date of the engagement."

Allen D. Potter, in a communication to The Freeman, said today: "As a result of recent press releases by Mayor Eugene Glusker of Ellenville made "ambiguous statements" when he reported certain insurance companies, affiliated with member agents, had "pulled out" of Ellenville because the fire department there is "undermanned."

That provision, it said, "stated that the city might lose title to this building, if certain regulations were not adhered to."

BABSON on BUSINESS

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass., April 18—I am writing this after a visit to Florida, and should be more optimistic. April is a wonderful month there. The former cold weather and freezes are now over. The cold and rains are entirely forgotten. In fact, they will give Florida better crops and more tourists next winter than ever before.

Published Figures Are Unfair

My time there enabled me to read more newspapers than usual, and it seems as if economic history may report, in years to come, that the 1958 "recession" was started in Washington. Many Congressmen there seem to be void of all reason. Like people in a hall where a fire has started, they are panicky and rushing headlong. Only they are looking for a way to "get in," rather than to "get out."

I know nothing about politics, but I do know my "statistics." The current figures on unemployment are very deceptive. They compare with only the past few years when both husband and wife have been working. This, however, has been an abnormal situation. I have roughly completed statistics for the number of families today without a wage earner compared with previous years. Although 5 per cent or more persons may be unemployed, my estimate is that less than one per cent of the families today are without wage earners. Is this a depression?

What About the Cures?

Before the Franklin Roosevelt era, every depression was allowed to "take its natural course." I personally have been through four such depressions. They developed because of (1) inefficiency, (2) careless spending, (3) dishonesty, (4) high living costs, and (5) unprincipled labor leaders; that these five fundamental evils resulted in a business decline with increasing unemployment until the nation had a "spiritual awakening." Then those evils were replaced by (1) efficiency, (2) thrift, (3) honesty, (4) lower living costs, and (5) reasonable labor leaders, and prosperity returned.

To bring us out of the last Great Depression, various quack "medicines, pills, and plasters" were used. Among these gimmicks let me mention unemployment insurance, veterans' payments, federal building loans, old age pensions, minimum wages, unsound taxes on business, unfair labor legislation, farm price supports, and finally the NRA fixing of retail prices. This was declared unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court, and the house of cards collapsed. Then business again improved and we soon entered another period of prosperity. No Congressman knows yet whether the "New Deal" or the Supreme Court decision created the new prosperity; but we do know it was at the expense of our dollar value, which de-clined to fifty cents.

Most Congressmen Are Now Too Hasty

From recent interviews with Washington officials, these men seem very confused. I point out to them that the present recession has occurred notwithstanding the fact that practically all the above New Deal "remedies" are still in force. If they worked in the "Thirties," why have they not already pre-

Rapid Calculator Aids IBM Work at Plant in Kingston

A large-scale IBM 704 Electronic Data Processing Machine went into action today at IBM Kingston as an engineering and manufacturing problem solver.

In eight major units the high-speed electronic calculator, which is manufactured at IBM Poughkeepsie, performs approximately 40,000 computations-per-second and is controlled by instruction programs stored internally in the equipment on magnetic tapes and cores.

At the local plant the 704 will aid in maintaining up-to-the-minute records, performing complex calculations and making comprehensive analyses.

To Speed Research

Richard J. Whalen, general manager of IBM Kingston, said, "The 704 is a welcome addition to our research tools.

"It will aid," he said, "in producing new circuit layouts and wiring charts, production cost and scheduling analyses and, in time, a perpetual inventory program for listing daily purchasing requirements."

The system has been installed in a 3,500-square-foot, raised floor area of the plant to be known as the IBM Kingston Computing Center. The 704's eight major units are magnetic core storage, central information processing unit, magnetic drum operator's console, power supply, printer, card reader, card punch and magnetic tape units.

Detail of Operation

Instructions are usually key punched on standard IBM cards and fed into the machine via the card reader. If the instructions are to be held for future use they are punched on cards or recorded on tape and filed.

To prepare the 704 for calculation magnetic tapes are inserted in the tape units, cards placed in the card punch hopper and, if necessary for the problem or problems, other cards containing instructions and data of the problem are placed in the card reader hopper.

By pressing one key at the operator's console the operator can make the calculator store the instructions and data relative to the problem and start computing. From then on the operation of the calculator is fully automatic, with all facets of the problem being under the complete control of the instructions already fed into the machine.

'Not True' U.S. Says of Red Charge

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House today put a "not true" brand on a Soviet charge the United States sent planes armed with atomic and H-bombs across the Polar area toward Russia.

The charge was made by Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at a Moscow news conference.

Gromyko said the Kremlin was sending a protest to the United Nations Security Council against what he called provocative flights.

"Mr. Gromyko's statements are not true," White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said in reply to newsmen's inquiries.

Hagerty added that a more complete statement would be made by the State Department later in the day.

President Eisenhower, informed of the Gromyko charge, discussed the matter with Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald Quarles and Under Secretary of State Christian Herter.

Herter and Quarles stayed on at the White House for the discussion after attending a Cabinet meeting which dealt with other matters.

They were sitting in for Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of Defense McElroy, both of whom were away from Washington.

In response to questions, Hagerty said his characterization of the Gromyko charge as "not true" applies to all of the foreign minister's remarks contending U. S. planes armed with atomic and hydrogen bombs were sent across the Polar region toward Russia.

There was some speculation in diplomatic quarters that one purpose of Gromyko's charges was to try to put the United States on the defensive at the start of summit conference negotiations with the West.

Jakarta Takes Padang, End of Rebellion Near

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Jubilantly proclaiming the capture of Padang, President Sukarno's government said today its forces are advancing on the last rebel stronghold.

One of the most diversified auction sales in some time will be held Saturday at Stone Ridge Grange Hall, beginning at 9:30 a.m. and will continue until all articles are sold. The auction is sponsored by the 4-H members for the benefit of their Camp Fund.

There will be all kinds of articles offered including household articles of all kinds and live stock as well. Ducks, chickens, calves and other animals will go on the auction block for the benefit of the building fund for the 4-H Camp at Plutarch.

Baked goods, foreign stamps, plants, almost anything which a 4-H member could collect, will be there.

Moving on Celebes

A Jakarta regiment also was reported moving on rebel troops in the Celebes, the octopus-shaped island 1,200 miles to the east which stood with Sumatra in the outer islands' fight against Jakarta.

The rebels claim Sukarno's government on Java has been too friendly with the Communists and short-changed them on foreign trade revenues from their own rich oil, copra, spice and other exports.

The fall of Padang signalled the last days of the two-month-old rebel government. But it remained to be seen whether the Sumatran rebels would make good their threat to wage a nagging guerrilla war from the jungles, the same sort of war which the Indonesians carried on against the Dutch until they got their independence.

No Casualty Report

The amphibious assault on Padang reportedly met with some rebel resistance, but how much was not made clear. There was no report of casualties, the battle apparently was the first major encounter in the cat-and-mouse civil war.

The government reported its troops had taken 20 prisoners and seized a number of weapons from the rebels.

One destroyer and two corvettes shelled the city before the daybreak landing.

"There are now in the final stage of crushing the rebellion movement of the Indonesian revolutionary government," Maj. Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, the American-trained army chief of staff, announced in an order of the day.

The government also announced the capture of Sungai-dareh on the key road to South Sumatra.

U.S. Drops Charges

SYRACUSE (AP) — The government has dropped racketeering and extortion charges against a former official of the Teamsters Union.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Andrew J. Culkin said in federal court yesterday that an indictment against Charles J. Farana, 52, formerly of Kirkwood, near Binghamton, had been dismissed.

The government dismissed the case because expected witnesses "backed down" on their stories, Culkin explained.

Farana resigned in 1954 as business agent and secretary-treasurer of Teamster Local 633 in Binghamton.

The indictment, returned in 1955, alleged that Farana extorted $1,000 from Carlton G. Whitaker of Unadilla and H. Leon McBride of Goshen, officials of milk-hauling companies. The charge stemmed from a probe of the trucking industry.

Farana is believed to have moved to Arizona.

Gromyko Warns

This happens, he said, every time a blip appears on U. S. radar screens.

American radar screen operators have mistaken electronic disturbances or meteorite showers for guided missiles or ballistic rockets, he said.

In every instance so far the bombers were turned back as soon as the error was discovered.

American Stock Exchange prices were generally higher in brick buildings.

Corporate bonds responded to the Federal Reserve Board's credit-easing measures with big gains. Trading was active. Long range U. S. government bonds also rose sharply.

Todd's Will Filed

NEW YORK (AP) — Shawmian Mike Todd's estate today was estimated unofficially at between three and five million dollars. He left half in trust for his widow, screen star Elizabeth Taylor, and bequeathed the other half outright to his son, Michael Todd Jr.

Todd's will was filed for probate in the New York County surrogate's court, Todd, 48, perished in a New Mexico plane crash March 21.

The will was dated April 16, 1957, and named his son as executors.

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Phyllis Kirk, a beautiful, spirited and most eligible bachelor girl, does not think it at all paradoxical that she makes a perfect television wife for "The Thin Man."

Speaking as Nora Charles, wife of Nick Charles, played by Peter Lawford, Miss Kirk believes that her TV spouse "has one quality above all others that makes him the ideal husband. He has curiosity. He wants to know what's going on and why."

Prefers Curious Man

"If I ever should decide to marry, it would be a man who is curious about life around him. I don't necessarily mean a man with a great intellect, but one who's interested in many things. I think that's the most important element in a happy marriage."

In her NBC-TV series (Fridays, 9:30 p. m.) Miss Kirk says that

CBS Vote Today
May End 10-Day
Technician Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Striking technicians of the Columbia Broadcasting System voted today on a proposed agreement to end their 10-day-old walkout against the big radio and TV network in eight cities.

Representatives of the network and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers reached an understanding late yesterday. Details of the agreement were withheld pending a referendum of the 1,300 strikers, expected to be completed some time tomorrow.

Some striking locals began voting last night.

The walkout, involving cameramen and other technicians, has affected CBS radio and television stations in New York, Hollywood, San Francisco, St. Louis, Chicago, Milwaukee, Boston and Hartford, Conn.

The stations, with the aid of supervisory personnel, have continued operations. The broadcasting of some live TV shows has been affected, however.

Chief issues in the dispute have been wage rates, job security and work jurisdiction. The workers now receive a weekly maximum of $175. CBS earlier offered a top of $185.

Busy Ritchard

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the theater's busiest actor-directors, Cyril Ritchard, has been invited to supervise a Broadway project for next fall, "The Pleasure of His Company," starring Cornelia Otis Skinner. Ritchard currently is touring in "Visit to a Small Planet," after which he has several commitments in the opera, "La Perichole." Next December he is to direct and perform in a London import, "For Amusement Only."

The Thruway Authority reported yesterday that 13 motorists have paid fines of $50 to $75 recently for trying to hoodwink the machines.

Lake Mohonk

The pleasant village of Accord, nestling on the banks of the Rondout, lies in a green valley at the foot of the Shawangunk, the Indians' "Blue Mountains." On a clear day one can see, high up on the cliff, the picturesque outlines of the Mohonk Lake Hotel. This famous resort has an interesting history. Back in early days the Indians often sought shelter in the forests, cliffs and caves during their frequent tribal warfare. Then one John F. Stokes acquired the property with its sapphire blue crater lake, and erected a small, rude structure with barroom and dancing space for picnic parties.

In the early summer of 1869 Alfred H. Smiley, of Poughkeepsie, first visited the place and was immediately smitten with its breathtaking beauty. He lost no time in enlisting the interest of his twin brother, Albert, who quickly bought the approximately 280 acres with lake which today form part of the famous 8,000 acre Mohonk Lake resort.

We in Accord are often queried by visitors regarding the tower which crowns the cliff at Lake Mohonk, plainly visible through the ten large show windows of the Accord Furniture & TV Mart. Here in the showrooms of the Mart on Route 209 (just a short drive from Kingston) visitors are welcome to browse through the displays of furniture, lamps, rugs, mirrors and pictures. Brand names include such famous ones as Pennsylvania House, Sprague & Carleton, Valentine Seaver, Kroehler, Maxwell Royal, Huntley, Basic-Witz, J.A.-Boy, Barcaloo, Luxury, Cleveland, Sealy, Englander, and many others. ## New Paltz Area Methodist Notes

Baptism Service

Services of worship in the churches of the New Paltz Methodist Parish will be held Sunday 8:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. in the New Paltz Church; 9:15 a. m. in the Lloyd Church; and 2 p. m. in the Pluthar Church. The Rev. Willett R. Porter will preach at the 8:30 a. m., 11 a. m., and 2 p. m. services while Peter Jacobs, local preacher, will conduct the 9 a. m. service.

The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered in the New Paltz Church at 11 a. m. Organists for these services will be Mrs. Eugene C. Trautwein, Miss Mary Lou Dunham, and George Meyer. The New Paltz senior choir will be directed by Robert Brearey.

Fellowship Social

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the New Paltz Church will hold a box social Saturday 6:30 p. m. in the social hall of the church. At a recent meeting John Morris was elected president. Morris succeeds Clyde Ronk whose three month term as president has expired. These officers serve the Junior High Fellowship. John VanNostrand Senior High Fellowship.

Conference in NYC

The annual conference session of the New York Conference of the Methodist Church, which includes some 350 Methodist Churches in southeastern New York State, will convene Thursday in Christ Methodist Church, New York City. Bishop Frederick Buckley Newell will preside at the sessions which conclude with the ordination service and the reading of the ministerial appointments Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Alvin Beatty and the Rev. Willett Porter will be the lay and ministerial delegates from the New Paltz parish. Several young people from the New Paltz Methodist Church will be attending the "Youth at Conference" program, held in conjunction with the annual conference sessions. Miss Linda Ronk, Miss Jane Holcomb, Peter Jacobs, and Alan Pritchett, will be official delegates from the parish. They will sit in on business session at Christ Church, take part in the group recreation, attend the youth banquet and rally Saturday evening, attend morning worship and view the ordination service Sunday afternoon.

Two local women are conference WSCS officers: Mrs. Alvin Beatty, secretary of literature and publication, and Mrs. Willett Porter, secretary of student work.

Bible Study Program

A Bible study series which began during Lent stimulated interest in program of Bible study, which will take place each Wednesday 7:30 p. m. in the Fellowship Room of the church.

The Rev. and Mrs. Willett Porter and Mrs. John Eason are in charge of formulating long-range plans of study. "The Prophets" are being studied at the present.

Spring Dinner May 14

The annual spring dinner of the New Paltz Methodist Church will be held Wednesday, May 14, with servings at 5:30 and 7 p. m. in the social hall of the church. Tickets will be available from members of the church this week.

District Nursing Home Group Holds Kingston Meeting

Nursing Home Association of the Capital District met at the Governor Clinton Hotel Thursday afternoon with President Catherine S. Poole of Rensselaer presiding at the business sessions. A dinner followed.

Hosting the Kingston meeting of the group were Mrs. Pearl Van Horn of VanHorn's Nursing Home and Stanley Hochberg of Hadler's Nursing Home. Next meeting will be May 22 in Albany.

Hochberg will be among those attending a two day course in nursing home administration at New York University Wednesday and Thursday. The course is sponsored by the New York State Department of Nursing Education and is open to members of the Nursing Home Association.

'Auntie Mame' Busy

NEW YORK (AP)—The comedy hit, "Auntie Mame," is rapidly becoming the most widely distributed play in show business. Five editions of the laughmaker are shaping. In addition to the longrun Broadway version, there is a company on the West Coast and three touring troupes in various stages of development. Constance Bennett is currently on the road and another company headed by Sylvia Sidney starts out soon. The fifth band is being planned for the summer theater circuit with Shirl Conaway starred.

Calls Proposed N. Y.-Montreal Route Untimely

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress urged by public officials to authorize a federal survey of an inland water route between the Port of New York and Montreal, has been told by an opponent of the project that it would be untimely and futile.

Favor $600,000 Survey

Statements in support of the proposal for a $600,000 survey were submitted yesterday to a House public works subcommittee by Gov. Averell Harriman, the Port of New York Authority, State Commerce Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson and Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City.

Opposition was heard from Burton N. Behling of the Assn. of American Railroads. Behling quoted from a 1937 survey of the project by the International Joint Commission that the waterway would not even approach economic justification.

The commission recommended, however, that a re-evaluation of the project be made upon completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway, to be opened next year. The Senate last year approved such action.

The IJC, 21 years ago, estimated that to deepen the existing New York-Montreal waterway to a minimum depth of 27 feet would cost $342,205,000. It estimated also that the annual carrying charges would be $17,646,400 and that the maximum potential savings in transportation costs would be $4,710,240 a year.

May Exceed Billion

Behling commented that engineering construction costs have since doubled or tripled—indicating that the project, should it ever be authorized, might cost in excess of a billion dollars.

He said that, if Congress disregards "the considerations of untimeliness and futility" and authorizes the survey, it should "specifically direct that the survey and economic evaluation of the route be based upon whether or not the full costs could be self-liquidating from tolls upon the users."

"Only in this way," he said, "is it possible to reach a sound determination regarding the economic justification of such a facility for transportation."

Behling, commenting on the necessity of Canada's participation in the project, said that country should participate in the survey from the beginning. Congress, he didn't stop.

They said Sunkel's car went into the garage attached to the Hugh McLarnan home and knocked through the back of the garage and off a 6-foot drop. Sunkel was fined $50 in Municipal Court for reckless driving.

Fight Stems Back to 1945*Streamlining Services Is Confusing Argument

By JAMES MARLOW

AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's an old story. Touch the armed forces and it's like pinching a tiger. Even when a president does it. The latest fight over streamlining the Defense Department should leave the public confused for weeks.

The battle will be mainly over details which military experts can understand and appraise but which will leave the public pretty much in the position of wondering who's right.

This fight goes back as far as 1945, through the administrations of presidents Truman and Eisenhower. Every time they pressed for more economy and efficiency in the armed forces they ran into opposition. Eisenhower's getting it again.

Ready to Fight

The latest flare-up is over his streamlining proposals of April 3. Knowing what lay ahead, he promised to fight. He's already started to, with a speech yesterday, probably the best-written he's ever delivered. Who wrote it is not known.

Even before he could make this talk in defense of his ideas they were lambasted by the most powerful man in the House side of the Capitol on problems involving the armed forces: Rep. Vinson (D-Ga).

Vinson, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, made an hour-long speech of his own in the house Wednesday.

Dangerous: Vinson

He charged that Eisenhower wanted to merge the armed forces into one vast organization; that the result would be a Prussian-type general staff, and that the whole Eisenhower concept was "dangerous to the security" of the country.

Eisenhower, whose whole case is based on the need for better security, replied with words like "nonsense." The President, who knew he was in for a struggle, postponed one of the most embattled points in his plan until next year.

Different Views

He had called for more "flexibility" for Secretary of Defense McElroy in handling money voted for the armed forces. Because Eisenhower was extremely foggy on just what "flexibility" meant, various interpretations were put on his words.

Some members of Congress thought he meant all money for the armed forces should be voted to McElroy to distribute as he pleased. Eisenhower had to deny this later. But he's postponing the fight on this part of his plan until 1959.

Army, Navy and Air Force all have individual backers in Congress. Eisenhower has warned the leaders of all three services against too much public arguing against his proposal. But there are other ways of fighting besides out in the open.

Openings for Europe

M/Sgt. Walter Gosling, local U. S. Army recruiter has announced that there are openings for prior service applicants and for non-prior service applicants for enlistment in the following units which are all going to Europe this summer. The 100th Transportation Corps, light truck; the 504th Ordnance Company and the 587th Field Artillery Battalion. All applicants will be guaranteed assignment to the unit they choose and will go to Europe with the unit.

It is expected that the quota for the above units will be filled quickly so it is urged that interested applicants contact M/Sgt. Gosling at 309 Wall Street, second floor.

Murder, Suicide Seen in Deaths Of Man, Wife

CORNING (AP) — A brother and sister went to the rear of their home here yesterday after they returned from school.

When they pushed open the door they found their father and mother on the kitchen floor, throats slashed open.

The father, Arthur Rising, 37, was dead. His 36-year-old wife, Pauline, died shortly afterwards.

Police said the deaths were an apparent case of murder and suicide.

In the kitchen were three blood-stained knives. One, a paring knife, had been used with such force, police said, that the blade had snapped off the handle.

The children, Gary, 13, and Ann, 9, said they found the front door locked when they came home and could rouse no one.

At Corning Hospital, Dr. Louis J. Graham, who examined the woman's body, said he made a routine visit at the Rising home approximately a half-hour before the bodies were found.

He said nothing seemed amiss when he left the couple.

Neighbors told police they had heard no unusual noises from the Rising home.

Harry E. Rising, father of the dead man, said his son had been emotionally disturbed and had been a patient at Willard State Hospital. He employed his son in his electrical contracting business. Steuben County Coroner Wayne C. Templer withheld a verdict pending investigation.

YMCA Program Canceled 6 Days For Gymarama

The regular youth division and physical department program scheduled Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday of next week for preps, cadets and junior classes, has been canceled due to final preparations for the "Gymarama" scheduled Saturday, April 26 at 7:30 p.m.

All boys in all age groups will report to the Y at 3:30 on weekdays and 9 a.m. Saturday.

General Secretary Louis Schaffer and Physical Director Richard Case, in an effort to bring the 225 boy cast into complete maneuvering, announced that all boys must attend the next eight rehearsals.

Parents are urged to contact the YMCA for full information.

Lofty Climb His Work

NEW YORK (AP) — Police converged on Manhattan bridge yesterday and one of them climbed toward a man perched 40 feet up on a girder.

Half way up, the cop persuaded the percher-in-peril to come down.

"Why did you do it?" the cops asked Edward J. Haggerty, 50.

"Because it's my job," he snapped. "I'm an inspector in the Department of Public Works and I have to look over the steel work every Thursday."

So the police went away and Haggerty climbed back up among the girders.

Former Resident Will Retire From Position At Holyoke College

Miss Gertrude V. Bruyn, director of the development program at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., a former Kingston resident, is one of the members of the faculty and administration who will retire in June.

During the 35 years of Miss Bruyn's leadership, Mount Holyoke has received well over fifteen and a half million dollars in gifts from alumnae and friends of the college. The annual alumnae fund has grown to nearly $188,000 and Mount Holyoke last year led the nation's women's colleges in percent of alumnae contributing, with a figure of 77.4. Campaigns directed by Miss Bruyn provided funds for such central campus buildings as Abbey Chapel, Clapp Laboratory and the physical education and chemistry buildings.

Daughter of the late James V. and Mary Hall Bruyn, Miss Bruyn was born in Kingston and was graduated from Kingston High School. A graduate of Mount Holyoke in 1914, she returned in 1923 to take over the newly-created office of field secretary. Since then all fund-raising activities of the college have been centralized under her direction, and she assumed her present title in 1950.

After graduation from Mount Holyoke Miss Bruyn studied at the New York School of Social Work and worked for a time with the New York State Charities Aid Association in Ulster County. She taught economics and sociology at Mount Holyoke for a year, then went to Washington, D. C., as an investigator for the Ordnance Department and later for the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor. Before returning to her alma mater in 1923, she was employment manager for the American Bosch Magneto Company in Springfield (Mass.) for four years.

In recognition of her "unstinted services to Mount Holyoke College" Miss Bruyn received a medal of honor in 1949 from the Alumnae Association. The citation referred, in part, to her "qualities of leadership" and her "breadth of vision and tenacity in achievement." One year later she was similarly honored by the American Alumni Council, of which she is past president, for her first 25 years of fund raising.

Endowed with great talent, these national favorites not only proved their tremendous agility at the keyboard, but they also captivated their audience with their extremely likeable personalities.

The duo-pianists, who had played in Kingston once before, reportedly in 1947, opened their program with the Coronation Scene from "Boris Godounov" by Moussorgsky. Their interpretation of this work, which is usually a concert favorite, was excellent. One could easily visualize the exciting drama surrounding the crowning of Czar Boris.

After her retirement Miss Bruyn will continue to live in Longmeadow, Mass., with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Quimby.

DISCUSS PROGRAM CHANGES—Meeting backstage before concert time at Community Theatre Wednesday were (l-r) guest artists Arthur Whittemore, Jack Lowe; Mrs. Harry C. Seitz, publicity director for Community Concerts

Association; Mrs. Aleksander Narel, Freeman society editor. Changes in the program in order to include special requests were discussed. (Freeman photo)

Duo-Pianists Give Inspiring Concert Here; Performance Is Season's Finale in Series

By DOROTHY A. NAREL
Freeman Society Editor

Kingstonians attending the final concert of the Community Concert Association series for this season, were treated to an evening of superb piano playing by Arthur Whittemore and Jack Lowe Wednesday at the Community Theatre.

Endowed with great talent, these national favorites not only proved their tremendous agility at the keyboard, but they also captivated their audience with their extremely likeable personalities.

The duo-pianists, who had played in Kingston once before, reportedly in 1947, opened their program with the Coronation Scene from "Boris Godounov" by Moussorgsky. Their interpretation of this work, which is usually a concert favorite, was excellent. One could easily visualize the exciting drama surrounding the crowning of Czar Boris.

After her retirement Miss Bruyn will continue to live in Longmeadow, Mass., with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Quimby.

The popularity of this team was emphasized when it was made known that before the artists arrived, area residents had already besieged them with requests for various selections. Responding to their enthusiasm, Whittemore and Lowe changed the program slightly in order to include the "Variations and Fugue on a Theme of Handel, Op. 24" by Brahms, which is an unquestioned Brahms masterpiece and was played brilliantly.

George Bizet's "Childhood Games" was also included in the program. Divided into miniature masterpieces, Whittemore and Lowe not only displayed fluid keyboard movements, but also interjected a bit of humor when they played this work.

By far the highlights of the program were the "Roumanian Rhapsody, No. 1" by George Enesco, and Ravel's "Ballo," the playing of which left the audience almost limp. Whittemore and Lowe certainly make their pianos "talk."

In every program, as Arthur Whittemore explained to the audience, they have one section where in they select music at random to suit the audience. These included "Sonata" by Poulenc; "The Lover and the Nightingale;" Granados' "Celebration Dance;" from Billy the Kid Ballet; "That Old Black Magic"; "Stars in My Eyes,"

Music Pioneers

This duo-team which plays a repertory ranging from Bach to Bartok, Johann Strauss to Gershwin, "pioneered" musically when they became the first concert artists to have their own regular program on television. Amassing a total of more than 100 appearances and appearing on three separate shows simultaneously they did recitals, informal commentary programs, and even became "classical music disc-jockeys." Now they have filmed a new series of 15-minute films currently being shown on television throughout the country.

Membership Drive

The concert given here Wednesday, marks the last in the Community Concerts series for this season.

Two concerts, however, have already been signed for those who plan to attend the series again next year.

The membership drive will be conducted May 4-10 at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

More than 100 workers have enlisted their assistance in this year's campaign. Reservations may be also made by contacting Mrs. Lloyd LeFever, Richmond Park.

Admission to the concerts is by membership only. Included in next year's concerts will be Roberta Peters, Metropolitan Opera star, and the National Symphony Orchestra of Washington, D. C. Howard Mitchell will conduct.

Ancient Performer

NEW YORK (AP)—The oldest performer on Broadway now is Senior Car. The hundred year old parrot has been inserted into "The Rope Dancers" while his predecessor is being used in a Hollywood film.

Senior Car lays claim to several career highlights; he was once owned by Mexico's notorious Pancho Villa; thwarted a night club robbery by screaming for help; and irritated Met Opera Star Lily Pons by imitating her voice.

Preserving The Accuracy of a Watch

Dear Mrs. Post: My son received a watch for Confirmation from relative. He has had the watch a month and I have noticed lately that it is not keeping good time. I would like to know if it would be proper for me to tell this relative about it and ask her to take it back to the jeweler from whom she bought it for adjustment. My husband thinks not, but I think it would be proper since most watches come with a guarantee and it would be senseless for me to pay to have it repaired when it can be done for nothing. What is your opinion on this?

Answer: No, I would not ask her to take the watch back.

But you can ask the name of the jeweler to which your son can take the watch to have it regulated. Once it is keeping time it will be up to your son to wind and wear the watch carefully following exactly the jeweler's instructions.

Who Gives Showers

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper for the man's immediate family (sister or mother) to give a shower for his fiancee? I say it is not, but my sister thinks it is quite different from the impropriety of her family asking people to donate presents. Is this true?

C. A. Methodist Choir Will Sing Hymns on Sunday

On Sunday, April 20, at 7:45 p. m., in the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, the senior choir will present a program entitled "Stories Of Hymns We Love."

The choir ventured into this type of program for the first time last year and because of the large attendance and repeated requests for another similar program this event has been arranged.

Numerous well-known hymns, entirely different than those sung last year, will be presented with the help of a brass ensemble, piano and organ. Admission is free and no offering will be taken. However, opportunity to make a donation to meet expenses will be provided at the door.

"Count Your Blessings" will be sung as on alto solo by Miss Dorothy Snell and "Have Thine Own Way Lord" will be sung as a tenor solo by Rex Depew. The hymn, "Away In A Manger" will be sung by a quartet of girls from the Wesleyan choir, directed by Mrs. Keron O'Neil. The girls' quartet will consist of Judith Blair, Jane Ann Hyatt, Bonnie Hall and Deborah Hyatt.

Dr. Clyde Herbert Snell, minister of the church, will narrate the story of each hymn before it is sung. The audience is invited to sing except during solo and special quartet numbers.

Three to four tablespoons of instant minced onion may be used to replace a large fresh onion in a stew.

Prospective Bride Of William Decker

(Mayfair photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Hoey, 78 Pinewood Avenue, Albany, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to William Henry Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Decker, 36 Mountain View Avenue, Hurley.

Miss Hoey is a graduate of Academy of the Holy Names, and will graduate from St. Peter's Hospital School of Nursing in August. Her fiance is a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy of Albany, and University of Notre Dame. He recently completed service with the U. S. Army in Fort Rucker, Ala., and is now employed by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co.

The wedding is planned for September 6.

YWCA Board Meeting Is Held; Open House Program Announced

The Board of Directors of Kingston's Young Women's Christian Association met at 7:45 p. m. on Monday, April 14.

In reply to an invitation from the Ulster County TB and Health Association, the board nominated Miss Mary Polhemus to represent the directors at the 49th annual dinner to be held on May 5 at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Miss Mary Van Dine, teenage program director, reported on the recent National YWCA Convention held in St. Louis, Mo.

Plans for the forthcoming National YWCA Week and Open House Week were also discussed. During the latter, which will be held May 5-9, the Sketch Class Tea and Show will be the opening event at 2 p. m. The Golden Age Club will meet that evening.

Tuesday, May 6, the Community Chest will offer a publicity workshop at 4:30 p. m. Several local authorities in the public relations field will lead discussions and panel conferences upon many related topics. This program includes a dinner and evening sessions.

Display of craft work by the newly formed Kraft and Koffee Klub will be held Wednesday, May 7, in the morning. In the evening, an elector's assembly meeting will be held dealing with current YWCA topic.

Regularly scheduled Y-Wives and Women's Club meetings will be held Thursday, May 8, at the YWCA.

Concluding the week's activities, the Little Women of the Y will entertain high school seniors.

Horticulture Course Is Given Here Free By Federated Group

The Third District, New York State Federated Garden Clubs gave a free course in horticulture to garden club members within the district Thursday at the Governor Clinton Hotel, according to Mrs. J. J. Carroll, president of Little Gardens Club of Kingston.

Arrangements for the course were made through the efforts of Mrs. C. V. Gunther, immediate past president of the club, and Mrs. McKeever, third district director.

Mrs. Keith Smiley Jr., recognized authority on horticulture, taught the class at the Governor Clinton Hotel which was held from 10:30 a. m. to 3 p. m.

The morning session included general plant ecology, which incorporated plant structure, response to surroundings and the environmental factors that are fundamental to successful plant life.

The afternoon program included identification of native trees and shrubs and a student participation workshop.

Columbiette Officers Are Installed Here

Formal Installation Rituals were conferred on the 1958-1959 officers of the Columbiettes of Kingston Council 275 of Knights of Columbus on Monday, Grand Knight, Florian P. Wingert was the installing officer and was assisted by financial secretary, Howard Fox and district deputy, Joseph Saccoman.

State advocate, Mrs. Ann Judson and Mrs. Michael Mancino, president of Monroe Council of Columbiettes, also assisted in the installation of officers of the recently formed Sister-Council of Kingston.

Following the rituals the regular meeting resumed and a report was given by Mrs. Edward Gardner, chairman of the round and square dance committee, Cliff, Gene and Ray Trio will play from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. April 26. Refreshments will be available during the evening. The public is invited.

Tickets are available from all members and also at the Colonial Book Shop, 253 Wall Street.

Major Degree Rituals will be held in White Plains for all the new first degree candidates on May 4. All candidates and members, who have made reservations are to meet at the K of C Home by 11 a. m. for the bus trip.

A report on the Hudson Valley Chapter Communion and Luncheon, which was held recently, was given. This report included final plans for the Retreat, which will be held at Don Bosco's, Stony Point, from 11 to 4 p. m. on Saturday, May 17. Members are requested to sign up in advance.

Plans for the Hudson Valley Chapter's annual ball were also reported on. The ball will be held September 27 in the ballroom of the Hotel Newburgh, Newburgh. This ball will be open to members, their relatives and friends.

A buffet lunch was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frederick Northrop and co-chairman Mrs. Robert Enright. Others on the committee were the Mmes. Vincent DeLuca, Albert Abadallah, Joseph Ahl, Edward Gardner, William Sills, Fred Iannone, William Weaver, Frank Castiglione, Clarence Kaiser, John F. Coffey, Edward Ahl, James Kennen and the Misses Lillian Styles, Madeline Berg and Marie Dugan.

Couples Club

AHRC Fund-Raising Campaign to Close May 1; $7,500 Goal

The 1958 fund-raising campaign of the Ulster County Chapter of Association for the Help of Retarded Children was inaugurated by a meeting of area chairman at the George Washington School Tuesday April 15. The campaign will continue through May 1, according to James Hogan, campaign chairman.

Mr. Hogan stressed the need for funds since it is estimated that three per cent of the national population is mentally retarded to the extent that they cannot gain help from regular public school classes, and Ulster County is not exempt from this problem.

"The financial requirements are considerable with such a great need in our own County. Therefore, each and every contribution will go a long way toward helping the mentally handicapped in Ulster County live a more nearly normal and useful way of life," he said.

To familiarize campaign workers with problems facing AHRC, a film entitled, "Tuesday's Child," was shown through the courtesy of the National Association for the Help of Retarded Children.

Publicity campaign was also mapped out during the meeting.

Pretty U. S. Hostesses, Models Happy Contrast to Grim Sputnik at Brussels

By DOROTHY ROE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (UPI)—The Russian pavilion at the Brussels World's Fair may have Sputnik, but the American pavilion has girls.

Although Russia spent more than 50 million dollars on her exhibit while the United States spent less than 15 millions, Uncle Sam wins the beauty laurels, hands down. The great circular glass-and-gold American pavilion dominates the colorful fair grounds. It is in happy contrast with the somewhat grim facade of the Russian building next door, an austere rectangular structure with an iron work arrangement on top suggesting a concentration camp.

The pretty American hostesses in their trim grey suits and bronze color berets are much in evidence at the U. S. pavilion, as are the glamorous models exhibiting typically American clothes in a continuous fashion show.

In the Soviet baillivage you see 10-ton machines, stony-faced male guides—and, of course, Sputnik. The Russians will have hostesses too, they say, but at a press preview today they were nowhere in sight. An interpreter explained that their uniforms had not arrived.

The Russians also plan to show

P-TA Hears Trooper Talk on Auto Safety

Trooper Gregory of the Sidney Barracks of the New York State Police, substituting for Sgt. F. C. Fordham, addressed the Saugerties Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday evening on "Traffic Safety."

Trooper Gregory said in 1957, 38,000 Americans were killed in traffic accidents on the highways of the United States, and that it has been predicted that over 40,000 will be killed in automobile accidents this year.

In the last week in the 10 counties covered by Troop C there were 51 accidents including one fatality. The principal cause of all of these accidents was stupidity or ignorance on the part of the driver.

Trooper Gregory praised the driver training programs conducted in many schools. He mentioned, however, that as people gain experience in driving they often develop their own set of traffic rules. He cautioned each person to examine his own driving technique before criticizing someone else's. Since the greatest driver error is failure to signal, he urged each person to be much more careful in this respect.

Trooper Gregory invited individuals and groups to visit the Sidney Barracks to see the quarters and the equipment with which the police work.

Central School Faculty Members Attend Parley

Six members of the Saugerties Central Schools teaching and administrative staff attended a conference in Poughkeepsie Wednesday afternoon conducted by members of the State Education Department.

The conference dealt with the state program in science and math in secondary schools. Members from the State Department of Education who spoke include Director of Secondary Education Dr. Ernest A. Frier; Frank Hawthorne, head of the Mathematics Division, and Hugh Templeton, head of the Science Division.

Personnel from the local schools system who attended were Miss N. Leona Hogan, head of the Mathematics Department; Robert Emery, head of the Science Department; Ray Ohno, science instructor in physics and chemistry; Miss Francis Larney, director of guidance; David Cunningham, assistant principal of the high school; and Dr. Grant D. Morse, superintendent of schools.

• BRIDGE*New Version on Old Hand

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Today's hand is an old chestnut which in one form or another has been appearing in columns for years. West opened the jack of clubs against the six-diamond contract and the theme is a safety play. South wins the first club lead and plays a low club back.

This gives up all play for seven but is an effective guard against a 5-1 club break. East wins the club and leads back anything he wishes. Now South is able to ruff his two remaining small clubs in dummy, pull trumps and run the rest of the tricks.

If a second high club is played, West ruffs in and leads a trump, whereupon South is left with three small clubs in his hand and only two trumps in dummy to ruff them with.

It is customary, to point out about here in the article that a trump opening would beat this hand and that the play of the ace and king of clubs would also lose the contract, but I have changed the hand around a trifle from its standard form.

The way this hand is set up, South can lay down the second high club and recover or he can make the hand even if a trump is opened. Tomorrow's article will show how.

Seven weeks tests will be scheduled Monday, April 28.

Morhouse Holds Union Wives May Help to Beat Ave

NEW YORK (AP) — Republican State Chairman L. Judson Morhouse said today the wives of union members will lead a silent revolt against labor racketeering and furnish "decisive help" in defeating Gov. Harriman at the polls.

Morhouse said the wives "are disgusted by Gov. Harriman's soft approach toward organized crime and his subservience to a few labor bosses, who are now demanding that he veto sensible Republican legislation to require honest bookkeeping and handling of union funds."

Morhouse assailed the governor, who is seeking re-election in November, in a speech prepared for a regional conference of the National Federation of Republican Women.

Morhouse called Harriman "the boss-picked, boss-dominated government-in-name-only."

The state chairman said: "The wives of rank-and-file union members are . . . fed up with the kind of labor politicians who influenced Gov. Harriman to block increased unemployment insurance and workers' compensation benefits for a whole year by vetoing five Republican bills."

"They realize now that in the showdown over the integrity of union finances Gov. Harriman sides with the labor bosses while the Republican leadership in this state stands with the rank-and-file working men and women."

Attempts to introduce the salmon from the cold waters of the north into Australian waters have been unsuccessful.

Movie Planned

NEW YORK (AP) — This season's top Broadway musical, "The Music Man," will eventually be converted into a movie in Iowa, the state that gave it birth. Meredith Willson, author and composer of the show, who hails from Mason City, admits however, "We'd have to take the Iowa weather as we found it — that's part of the setup."

Back Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Virginia Kaye is finally getting to Broadway in "Sunrise at Campobello." Miss Kaye performed in the hit drama during its tryout tour but left the cast when her part was eliminated. Now she is taking over the role created by Mary Welch. Miss Welch, the wife of David White, is leaving to have a baby.

City Baseball League Will Operate With Five Teams

Opener Slated
Tuesday, June 10;
Seek Sixth Team

The City Baseball League will operate with five teams and launch the 1958 campaign on Tuesday, June 10, it was decided at last night's organizational meeting at city hall.

Four holdover teams represented were Jones Dairy, Ulster Electric, Ulster Engineering and Nadler Motors.

A new franchise is the 35 Club, while Kingston Eagles will not return since the majority of their 1957 roster is now in service.

The league is without a playing field at the moment, but hopes to acquire playing rights to Dietz Stadium.

Holdover managers on hand were John (Daisy) Schatzel of Jones Dairy, Jack Watzka of Ulster Electric, Big Jim Ferraro of Nadler Motors and James Bell of Sickler's 35 Club.

President Fred Davi said he would like to hear from any teams interested in the sixth spot in the league. The twi-circuit has operated as a five-team loop for the past several years.

The league set a 20-man roster limit, with rosters closing on July 1.

Rocket's Goal Beats Bruins In Overtime

MONTREAL (AP) — Maurice (Rocket) Richard, the fiery hockey veteran with a flair for dramatics and a devastating shot, rifled in an overtime goal last night to give the Montreal Canadiens a 3-2 win over the Boston Bruins and the same 3-2 margin in the Stanley Cup final.

The end to the sudden-death struggle came at 5:45 of overtime play. It was a blow to the fighting Bruins but typical of the Rocket's explosive accomplishments. The shot was only the second he had been able to fire on the Boston net throughout the long struggle.

The big goal that once again gave Montreal the edge in the best-of-7 series marked the sixth time Richard has broken up overtime games in his 13 appearances in post-season play.

It was also the 18th time he has scored the winning goal in playoffs. Once before in the current series—in Montreal's 3-0 win last Sunday in Boston—the 36-year-old Rocket popped in what proved to be the winner.

The series moves to Boston for the sixth game Sunday.

It was a game that could have gone either way. Against the brilliant work of goalies Jacques Plante of Montreal and Don Simmons of Boston, each team had to come from behind before the grim tussle went into sudden-death play.

Musial Sets Another Record, But Cards Yet to Win; Mathews Hits 2

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

Stan (The Man) Musial has yet another National League record in the bag today, but the St. Louis Cardinals are still looking for that first victory in what some folks picked to be their pennant year.

Musial, at 37 closing in on a cluster of standout hitting records and milestones, slammed past Mel Ott's league record for total bases with a home run and a single last night, but it wasn't enough to ward off a 4-3 defeat by the Chicago Cubs.

Near 3,000

Musial now has collected 5,046 total bases on 2,960 hits—just 40 short of the select 3,000-hit club—while padding his NL record of long hits to 1,157 with his 382nd home run. Ott totaled 5,041 bases in his 22 seasons. Musial, in his 17th season, now ranks No. 5 among the major league total-bases leaders, topped by Ty Cobb's 5,863.

Mathews Raps Two

Mathews, who led the league with 47 home runs in 1953 and hit 32 last season, rapped loser Vern Law for a two-out, three-run homer in the fifth, breaking a 1-1 tie, and then slugged No. 2 in the seventh off rookie Bennie Daniels with one man on.

Burdette, who blanked the Yankees in the fifth game of the World Series in his last start on the County Stadium mound, walked no one and gave up seven hits. A triple by Roberto Clemente and Gene Baker's sacrifice fly ruined his shutout bid in the fifth.

Black Doggers

Winner Curt Barclay and Marv Grissom shut out the Dodgers on three hits over the last 5 1-3 innings in relief of Johnny Antonelli, who blew a 3-0 lead by giving up five hits and six walks.

The Dodger-Giant series, which drew 58,703 for three games in little Seals Stadium, shifted to Los Angeles today with 90,000-plus expected at the Coliseum—an all-time baseball record—for the Dodgers' home opener.

Set for 10-Game Slate

Nine Veterans Nucleus of Wallkill Baseball Squad

Wallkill Central has a good nucleus around which to build a contender this season with nine returnees from last year's baseball squad.

Coach Vince DeAngelis is hopeful the Blue Devils will be in the thick of the Ulster County race when its season starts next Friday at home against Highland.

The Devils will play an abbreviated 10-game schedule. All of the games are with league foes, including home and away series with Rondout Valley, Marlboro, New Paltz, Oneonta and Highland.

Veterans back are Gene Bilbao, Ralph Bilbao, Henry Hecht, Bernardo Rodriguez, Ronnie Conroy, Bob Wright, Ted Williams, Frank Tortorici and Bob Edeboholz.

The local sportsman also assailed Robert Moses, chairman of the State Council of Parks, who has agreed that more recreational use should be made of the preserve, which runs through the Adirondacks and Catskills.

Raps Bob Moses

"Robert Moses may have done a good job for New York City Parks, etc., but if by more recreational use he means cutting wide trails through the Preserve so that city folks can walk along without scratching their patent-leather shoes to see the starving deer, which he consistently refuses to permit being harvested, down in Bear Mt. State Park, then we say he had better stick to his knitting and let folks with a real appreciation of nature in all its glory administer the Preserve," said King.

The Preserve is available for recreational uses if people want it, "but if we destroy what we've got now who can find it to use."

King praised Sharon Maus, state conservation commissioner, who also sharply disagreed with Tubby.

King noted that the chief of the U. S. Forest Preserve last year was quoted as favoring the retention of the "forever wild" provision in the state constitution. The dean of Syracuse University's College of Forestry also concurred, King said.

"Our Forest Preserve Committee is sort of a watchdog committee. We are willing to look into all possibilities but we will jealously protect to the best of our abilities our great Forest Preserve not only for the present but for future generations as well."

"We respectfully suggest that more people learn about the possibilities of using the Forest Preserve. It belongs to all the people of New York State. Let's be sure that they always have it," King concluded.

Backyard Driving

SHELBY, N. C. (AP)—There had been a minor traffic accident and Trooper D. W. Spratt was questioning the motorists involved. One, a woman, explained that she had never driven before on a highway, that all her previous driving experience had been in her yard. "How long have you been driving around in the yard?" Spratt asked. "Oh, two or three years," she replied.

French Champ Meets Baker On TV Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lahouari Godih, who three days ago didn't know when he'd crash an American ring, gets the opportunity tonight in a 10-round bout with Larry Baker of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Godih is a 28-year-old Algerian who last year won the French lightweight title. He's fought all over Europe and came to the United States this year with ambitions of challenging world champion Joe Brown.

Godih hasn't made it that far yet. But he's getting a shot at Baker because of postponement of the fight originally scheduled for tonight's regular Friday TV-radio hookup (NBC, 10 p. m.). Alex Mittell of Argentina, who had been matched with Willi Besmanoff of Germany, had to withdraw because of a severe body rash and a nose injury.

Promoter Goldie Ahearn and the International Boxing Club paired Godih with the 27-year-old boxer for the substitute main event at Capitol Arena.

Since turning pro in 1952, Baker has won 21, lost 13 and drawn 3. He has kayoed 12 and has been stopped only once, by Vince Martinez last September.

Godih is 45-3-2 for eight years in the ring. He has flattened 12 opponents and has been kayoed once. He's won his last 19 bouts in a row.

Cites Area Examples

"Were it not for their foresight, dollar-hungry lumbering and power interests would long ago have taken us these priceless assets," King declared.

Recreational use of campsites at North Lake, Devil's Tombstone and Woodland Valley in this area were examples, he said, and while there are others in the Adirondacks many more are needed "and with this we agree for they are possible, under current law, without relaxing the safeguards which our forebears provided."

He said Tubby's views "were far from convincing" since "we can still provide, when funds are provided, for increasing use of the Preserve without taking the chance of relaxing the ban on tree cutting in the Preserve."

Advocating that tree-cutting in a forest could improve water resources "is a travesty on the intelligence of our people," King said.

The local sportsman also assailed Robert Moses, chairman of the State Council of Parks, who has agreed that more recreational use should be made of the preserve, which runs through the Adirondacks and Catskills.

Raps Bob Moses

who Nania's successor will be.

It is understood there are a number of applicants interested in the job, but none of the names have been revealed.

Nania lost his $600 coaching job about a month ago when the board refused to renew his contract, after he turned down its request to resign "in the interest of the school and the football team."

The board has ample time to carefully study the applicants. The grid season doesn't start until Sept. 26 when the Middies are at Poughkeepsie.

STILL LEARNING—Hal Jeffcoat, Cincinnati regular pitcher, has been in the majors since 1948, but he's still learning his present job. He was an outfielder until 1954 and is trying to come off a 12-13 showing at Crosley Field last year. A right-hander, his style is simple, but it's the results that count.

MR. VERSATILITY

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA) — As Stan Musial describes it, if the ball jumps out from the pitcher quickly to a distance of about 30 or 40 feet from the plate, he knows it is a fast ball. If it comes out any slower than that from the pitcher's hand, The Man maintains, it is a curve or a change-up.

Henry Aaron will show you those white teeth and explain "They throws it, and I hits it."

Ted Williams says if a man swings at a pitch outside the strike zone five times he will do it 100 times. So it is better not to do it at all.

Yogi Berra shrugs and says, "If it looks good, I take a swing at it. I think they're all strikes but guys keep telling me they are balls. It don't matter, as long as you can hit them."

These are little examples of the two sides of baseball you'll hear about most of the season.

You'll have the Musial-Williams school of smart, inside stuff. On the other hand you have the Aaron and Berra types who just do it and oftentimes haven't the slightest idea why.

This leads to a set-up argument. Does a baseball hitter really have to think or does natural instinct take care of it all?

In wandering around baseball dugouts and locker rooms you always find a ballplayer sitting atop an equipment trunk with the day's sport pages in hand. His lips move slowly as he struggles through the light-hearted nonsense people who write sports specialize in.

The newspaper seems to be an obstacle course for the guy, yet the story is probably describing him as "one of the smartest hitters in the game."

The feeling here is that a fellow like Musial can speak intelligently about almost anything. But when he stands in the batter's box, crouching and coiling, he is nothing more than a strong-armed bloke from the smoke and steel mills of Donora, Pa., who reacts with animal instinct when a pitcher heaves a ball at him.

In retrospect, The Man can tell you what he does out there. But if he tried to think about it while in the act of pulling a bat around he wouldn't be one of the finest hitters the game has known.

In hitting a baseball a contestant can check a good part of his brains in the locker room. Pure instinct plus discipline throughout afternoon after afternoon on Donora, Pa., sandlots and minor league fields at Williamson, West Virgina, and Daytona Beach, Springfield, Mo., and Rochester made Stanley Musial a seven-time National League batting champion.

Ted Williams, Hank Aaron, Yogi Berra and the other belters of this era are of the same mold. Tom Greenwade, the Yankee scout, knew that Mickey Mantle was a tremendous hitter when The Switcher was 17 years old.

Players can be taught to do some of the mechanical tricks baseball demand.

But they cannot be taught to hit.

At bat, the combatant mostly does what comes naturally.

The Weather

FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1958
Sun rises at 5:12 a. m.; sun sets at 6:39 p. m., EST.
Weather: Fair and Warm

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 48 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 72 degrees.

Weather Forecast

SUNNY SKIES DUE

Southeastern New York—General fair and warm weather continuing through Saturday. Highest daytime temperature mostly in the 70s. Low tonight in upper 30s and 40s. South to southwest winds 10-25, becoming variable under 15 tonight and Saturday.

Gunnery Practice

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—A poor critter doesn't have any chance these days. The Atomic Energy Commission office says pilots flying in small planes and armed with shotguns will begin an all out coyote hunt if the creatures don't thin out on the ABC's huge reservation near here.
